

Vacancy: Bachelor Intern Job Communication/ Leisure Management | Reduction of drinking water use in Leeuwarden

Do you want to mean something to the world and work on real-life assignments in an international environment? Then why not choose an internship or graduation position at the Centre of Expertise Water Technology (CEW), at WaterCampus Leeuwarden?

CEW devises, researches and tests innovative solutions for the increasing global problems related to climate, environment, water and food, commissioned by companies and governments. CEW does this together with students, teachers and researchers from universities of applied sciences.

CEW is looking for:

A socially skilled bachelor student of Communication or Leisure Management (other courses possible in consultation), who is curious about technological solutions for water saving, but also about social aspects such as behavior and motivations of people.

This is what you are going to do:

In collaboration with Vitens and the Municipality of Leeuwarden, you will conduct research into drinking water use and the possibilities and motivations for reducing drinking water use within the household. You do this by means of a desk study and a consumer survey. Based on the information obtained, it can be determined which other measures seem effective in encouraging residents to change behavior in concrete situations and/or to use technology to reduce water consumption.

Your working environment:

Our office is located at WaterCampus, Oostergoweg 9 in Leeuwarden, The Netherlands. Here you will do your internship a team of permanent employees and a group of students (10 to 20). In addition, you regularly go into the field to do research.

Your profile:

You have an affinity with statistical analysis and the skills to set up serious consumer research. You can then analyse the results and translate them into a useful advisory report. You are socially skilled and you know how to enthuse people. You are representative and you can represent the CEW well towards external parties. You are curious and not afraid to delve into new topics.

What we offer you:

- a socially relevant internship;
- personal and expert guidance;
- support with communication skills;
- an international team with an informal atmosphere;
- regular social activities;
- a competitive internship allowance.

Your response:

Has what you've read here made you enthusiastic? Then please send an email describing your motivation and background to studenten@cew.nl, subject: 'Vacancy: 20210032'. For more information you can contact Maarten Trilsbeek tel. 058 210 09 19 or visit www.cew.nl.
